1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Page 11, line 2, "144" has been replaced with --142--

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-34 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1,10,17 and 25 the prior art (US 6,260,073- Walker et al.) of record teaches "the method of initializing a switch in communication with said requesting device, said switch including plurality of communication ports, said initializing including the steps of initial change index value, creating an initial data vector identifying implemented ports, and storing said change index value in association with said initial data vector". The prior art of record fails to teach passively "a method of incrementing change index in response to configuration change communicating, creating a data vector in response to subsequent configuration change, the data vector identifying each of plurality of ports affected by the configuration change, storing the data vector with incremented change index and updating the requesting device with all the ports configuration previously identified as affected by the configuration change in one or
